

Provider SelectFile™

Subscribe to the most trusted source of provider information.

Wouldn't it be great to have access to a rich and reliable source of provider information? Just imagine being able to be able to get detailed information on providers by type, region and other key dimensions. With that information, you could do vital research, set strategies and carry out campaigns to expand and optimize your network, enter new territories and give your business a competitive edge.

Now you can. Provider SelectFile is our new subscription service that delivers provider information based on your specific information needs. In addition, Provider SelectFile leverages Enclarity's Master Provider Referential Database to deliver the most correct, current and comprehensive profile available about a specific group of providers.

Imagine endless possibilities. All with a simple subscription.

With a subscription to Enclarity Provider SelectFile, the world is your oyster. You'll have access to information about a specific grouping of providers, selected by provider type, region and attribute type – a file that's cost-effective yet powerful because it includes just the information you need. Provider SelectFile lets you explore detailed information addressing all regions of the country – or just one. Research a wide variety of provider types (MD, DO, Hospital, Group, Lab, Ancillary and more) – or the subset that's relevant to you. Select the detailed demographic information, key identifiers and other credentials you need at a point in time, and receive regular refreshes to keep you up-to-date.

By subscribing to Enclarity Provider SelectFile you can find:

- Detailed, accurate and up-to-date demographic data for every provider
- Information on multiple provider locations
- Key identifiers, UPIN, DEA, NPI, tax IDs, state license number
- Other credentials such as group and hospital affiliations, medical school, specialty and more for individual providers and organizations

Provider information you can trust.

Your subscription to Enclarity Provider SelectFile gives you the power to leverage the Enclarity Master Provider Referential Database. Over 140 million data records from over 1,000 verified sources are distilled by Enclarity's highly acclaimed AcuSync® process to create detailed, accurate and timely information on over 6.5 million providers. Provider SelectFile puts all of this at your fingertips, giving you the power to select the slices of information to fit your exact needs.

We safeguard the quality of our information by continuously updating our provider database, mining new sources, refining our matching algorithms and doing systematic telephone verification. In addition, Enclarity has pioneered an innovative data quality strategy in which industry-leading organizations have joined with us to create a provider information consortium. This consortium gives us valuable feedback and updates to our referential database, and gives you a powerful source of valuable, verified provider information.

Finally, you can access a trusted source of provider information to enable almost any operational function. From marketing, to provider outreach mailings, credentialing support, network gap analysis, planning network growth and more, Enclarity Provider SelectFile can give you a powerful competitive advantage.

Subscribe to Enclarity Provider SelectFile.

You can choose the frequency of a Provider SelectFile subscription that best fits your needs. Whether you need your information access refreshed monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or annually, Enclarity can deliver a Provider SelectFile subscription that's perfect for you.
